The fourth brigade of the second division at Chicago, and a brigade at Omaha and at Fort Russell, Wyoming, were also ordered to be in readiness to move. The destination was not specified.

 Burning towns and destroying the property of both Americans and Mexicans, the rebel General Sanazar today moved his forces out of Casa Grande.
 Salazar left in ruins Colonia Diaz, an American town of a popular population of 700 persons.
 Colonia Dublan, another American town is reported to have been fired and other American colonies are endangered.

DESPERATE STREET FIGHTING.
 (By Federal Wireless Telegraph.)
 CITY OF MEXICO, February 12.— (Special to The Advertiser)—Resuming at seven-twenty o'clock this morning the battle that was ended by darkness Tuesday evening, the Madero and Diaz forces clashed in a terrific engagement that lasted until early this afternoon, when firing ceased.

Formal demand upon Madero that hostilities be suspended at once was made by United States Ambassador Wilson and the German Ambassador.
 Rebels and Federals conferred on the demand.

For six hours shrapnel flew through the city's streets, doing tremendous damage to the business buildings and killing scores of non-combatants. Expert gunners in the Diaz ranks shelled many high buildings where the Madero guns were mounted and rifle bullets splattered against houses occupied by hundreds of Americans as well as the countrymen of the combatants. Exploding shells struck the Mutual Life Insurance building, setting it on fire.
 For two hours the British Legation was under fire.

BRITISH EMBASSY STRUCK.
 The federal battery stationed near the building drew the fire from the Diaz machine guns and the embassy was struck by several shells.

 To add to the horror of the situation three thousand prisoners were released from Belen prison, the liberated men scattering to all parts of the city.
 Treachery already prevails in several sections.
 Spattered with the blood of hundreds who fell in yesterday's battle, the capital's principal business streets presented a ghastly sight at dawn. Torn and dismembered bodies littered the pavements. Estimates of the dead vary from two hundred to one thousand. Regardless of the incidental loss of life and the protests of American Ambassador Wilson and Senor De La Barra, a former provisional president, the struggle was continued today, President Madero giving the order which sent his forces in a determined assault on Diaz's arsenal stronghold.

PLEADS IN NAME OF HUMANITY.

"In the name of humanity, and as a Mexican who is free from political and revolutionary parties," pleaded De La Barra with Madero, "I wish to offer my services in any way possible to effect peace without further bloodshed." Madero thanked De La Barra, but declared no terms other than an unconditional surrender could be made with Diaz.

"I am not afraid to die," asserted Madero, "and I propose to die, if necessary, fighting for the right." Then he gave orders for the renewal of the battle.

Almost the first shell fired by the government's artillery struck the Mutual Life Insurance building and exploded. Another building to feel the effects of the machine guns was the Y. M. C. A. building, which yesterday was decorated with the flags of the Diaz Revolt.

It was made the scene yesterday of a scorching spray of bullets and it was again the center of attack today.
 Its demolition appears almost a certainty.

CONSUL'S NARROW ESCAPE.
 CITY OF MEXICO, February 12.— (Special to The Advertiser)—The escape of Consul-General Arnold Shanklin and his staff from the American con-sulate building during the seven hour battle between the federal troops and the rebels in the streets of Mexico City yesterday was a sensational one.

Mr. Shanklin broke down two doors and was thus enabled to pass into and through an adjoining building and to make exit on a closed street, which was at the moment free from rifle fire.
 The consul general and staff carried along with them a wounded man who had been brought into the consulate building for temporary treatment.

AMERICAN WOMEN KILLED.

 Holmes, an American woman, was shot and killed during the battle. Mrs. Griffith, also an American woman, was also shot and killed.

GREAT BRITAIN FOR INTERVEN-TION.

LONDON, February 12.—(By Associated Press Cable)—This morning's newspapers, practically without exception in discussing the situation in Mexico, concede that the United States has all the justification necessary for intervention in the affairs of that troubled republic.

ANOTHER CRUISER FOR MEXICO.

GENERAL MAUS TO FRONT.
 VANDOVER BARRACKS, Washington, February 13.—(By Associated received orders late last evening to at once proceed to Albany, New York, to take command of the First Brigade, which has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to move.

 (By Associated Press Cable)—Anticipating the resumption of hostilities here today between the federal troops of Madero and the rebels under Diaz, more than 600 of the American residents of this city have fled from their homes to temporary quarters on the outskirts of the city.

So far it is estimated that the casualties in the street fighting exceed 300 dead and 1500 wounded, many of the latter so severely that death must result.

Mrs. Griffiths, who was wounded early yesterday by machine gun fire, died later. Alice Bland, an American printer, while walking along the street, was severely wounded in the arm.

United States Ambassador Wilson advises all Americans who can to move out of the city at once, as he anticipates some tremendous fighting today and tomorrow, which will be decisive of the fate of the Madero government.

At ten o'clock last night a brief artillery battle opened upon an alarm being given of a night attack by the rebels on the palace.

PROBLEMS WHICH SPEAKER FACES

Appointments of Committees and Especially Chairman, May Puzzle Holstein.

Speaker Holstein, for undoubtedly he will again provide over the destinies of the territorial house of representatives, will have quite a task on his hands in the matter of selecting proper chairmen for his committees.

There are only eight Republicans who were elected to the coming session, including the speaker, who have had previous experience in legislative work, and the policy heretofore has been to select the chairmen from among the returned members, but there are twelve regular standing committees to be appointed and no one man should preside over more than one committee.

The committees, as provided for in the house rules, are: Accounts and public expenditures; agriculture, forestry, promotion and immigration; Education; enrollment, revision and printing; finance; health and police; journal; judiciary; military; miscellany; public lands and internal improvements; and rules.

Under the rules, the speaker is named chairman of the journal committee, the other two members being the chairmen of the accounts and public expenditures, and enrollment, revision and printing committees. Thus there will be but seven returned Republican members and as many as eleven chairmen to be appointed.

Speaker Holstein may set aside party lines and give the military committee to Henry Kawewehi and the miscellaneous one to some democrat, and in the latter case he may not be particular who gets it.

While nothing definite has been settled upon yet, it seems as if Norman Watkins will head the finance committee; C. H. Cooke, education; Doctor Huddy or George P. Cooke, public lands and internal improvements; Conney, the health and police, his old committee; Sheldon, one of the unusually few lawyers of the house, the judiciary committee; Waiholo, printing; A. P. Tavares, agriculture, forestry and kindred matters; George P.
 Cooke or Doctor Huddy, public expenditures and accounts.

Because of the situation Holstein finds himself in he will be practically forced to appoint several of the new Republican members to head the other committees. He will also find himself in a peculiar position in the appointment of the remaining members of the respective committees and still refrain from placing a Democratic majority on any one of them.

In Australia the lord mayor of Sydney, stung by the reproach that his city is the "dirtiest in the southern hemisphere," has organized a "special patrol force" of a hundred vigilantes to capture citizens offending against the municipal laws for the preservation of good order, neatness and cleanliness. He mustered them the other day in the yard of the city hall. "Act," he said, "without fear or favor. Never mind whether the offender is well dressed or shabbily dressed. Do your duty. Many of our citizens have fallen into dirty habits and we have to teach them to be clean and tidy."—Indianapolis News.

LINCOLN'S BIRTH IS CELEBRATED

Appropriate Ceremonies at Both Liliuokalani and Punahou Schools.

(From Thursday Advertiser)

Any regard which the majority of the business houses of Honolulu may have for the memory of Lincoln, was in the words of District Attorney Breckens, placed on the secret file as far as any outward indication of it on the Emancipator's birthday yesterday was concerned. There were any number of bare flag poles and those in use, as a rule flew the gorgeous banner of China which was celebrating its first anniversary as a Republic.

But whatever the elders failed to do, the children celebrated, particularly at Kaimuki, where a great bronze tablet to the memory of Lincoln was unveiled in the Liliuokalani School with appropriate ceremonies and at Punahou Preparatory School.

The exercises at the former school had the accompaniment of the Hawaiian band, which turned out to a man and under the leadership of Captain Berger gave a program of patriotic airs during the afternoon. On the platform were seated members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish-American War Veterans, and others taking part in the ceremonies.

The program opened with the singing of the song, "God Speed the Republic," by the school, after which the Rev. F. G. Williams pronounced the invocation.

Eulogy of Lincoln.

Chairman Ed Towse spoke briefly, saying in part: "We are assembled here to do honor to a peerless soul and great institution. Upon no more fitting spot than the entrance to a public school could be placed a memorial to Abraham Lincoln. As his spirit looks from the unseen realms of the blessed upon the machinery of our existence, his thought might be that our present idealization of him might not be inappropriate. As he was the champion of the common people, so is the public school the heritage and pride of the common people. While he cared not for the superlative polish of the mind, he believed in its cultivation for the general good. Without the privileges of the most ordinary schooling, he became a superb scholar in that he knew himself and he knew men."

Lincoln was the greatest human force that since time began has flooded across the limited horizon of mankind.
 His was a life of struggle and sacrifice and accomplishment; of justice, truth and purity; of staunch purpose, of fixed determination and of unbounded faith.
 It is no error to declare that his character still pulsates as the high mark of the expression of man's usefulness to his fellow men."

Children Take Part.

Following the spirited singing of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" by the children, Miss Bon K. Towse sang the beautiful and appropriate "My Captain, O My Captain."

Lincoln's Gettysburg address was given with fine effect by Reginald Tim-berlake, a young orator of the school.
 Possibly the most interesting feature of the program was the recital of his memories of Lincoln by C. H. Dickey.
 The speaker's father was a judge in Illinois before whom Lincoln practiced, and in addition was a warm personal friend, so that young Dickey was frequently thrown into the company of Lincoln both before and after he became President. He told a number of anecdotes of Lincoln and indicated to his youthful audience the lessons to be learned in studying the life of Lincoln.

The presentation of the tablet on behalf of the Waiwale, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club was made by George W. R. King in a few pithy remarks in which he apparently declared for woman suffrage inasmuch as he told the little girls in the audience that he hoped that when they grew up they would be accorded the same rights and responsibilities as the men.
 The unveiling of the tablet was done by Fred Turrill, a veteran of the Civil War, and it was accepted on behalf of the department of education by Wallace R. Farrington. The exercises closed with the singing of "America."

Among those seated on the platform were the following members of the local post of the Grand Army of the Republic: P. W. Rider, W. H. Wilkinson, W. W. Maky, Mr. McCandless, G. W. Smith, F. Turrill and James Copeland. The auditorium was filled to the doors, with every seat taken.

Program at Punahou

At Punahou Preparatory School the following was the program of exercises:

Song, "God Bless Our Native Land," Choir.
 Recitation, "Lincoln's Birthday," Aileen Dowsett.
 Essay, "Lincoln the Statesman," Evelyn Breckens.
 Recitation, "Abraham Lincoln," by Jas. A. Garfield, Leon Ebersole.
 Concert recitation, "The Gettysburg Address," eighth grade.
 Song, "America," School.

MODERN WOMAN NOT
SQUAW; SHOULD VOTE

CHICAGO, February 1.—Mayor Brand Whitlock of Toledo, Ohio, spoke here today to the Political Equal league in which he said that votes for women are their right, and not a theory.

"The assertion that the place for woman is in the home dates back to the period when women were squaws whose duty was to do all the manual work of the tribe," he said.
 Mr. Whitlock declared himself out of sympathy with English militant suf-fragists, because, he said, "they seek votes for taxpaying women, not for all women. Violence never accomplished anything, anyhow."

A SUGGESTION.

"Half a jar of my remedy cured Wombert. Less than half of jar cured Boperville. What do you say to that?"
 "Too much waste. You ought to market your remedy in smaller jars."
 —Kansas City Journal.
